CIVIL DEFENSE becomes very real at the thorough courses given at the Western Technical Training School at St. Mary's College in Moraga. There are only two such Federal Civil Defense Administration schools in the nation—this one and one just outside Washington, D. C. This picture was taken last year at the conclusion of a special course at the local school, for firemen from all over the West. Assisting in the "rescue" of a "victim" from a "bombed out" building were several Boy Scouts of Lafayette Troop 204. Scouts shown (left to right on the ground) are Rattlesnake Patrol Leader Howard Schirmer, Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Jack Lloyd, Bob Effinger and Jim Knight, at extreme right, and—on the porch, above—Pelican Patrol Leader Bob Roberts. Effinger has since moved with his family to Riverside, Conn. The scouts served as messengers and aides for the rescue squads. Director of the Western Technical Training School is Dr. B. Frank Gillette of Wainut Creek.

"CIVIL DEFENSE for Everyday Living" was the theme of the recent Third Women's Training Conference at the Western Technical Training School at St. Mary's College. Shown learning how to put out fire caused by an incendiary bomb are, left to right, Mrs. J. Wayland Barnette of the Lafayette Women's Republican Club, holding the bucket; Mrs. Charles Garrels, chief warden of the Clayton Area Civil Defense Sub-Council, at the stirrup pump, and Mrs. Lawrence Wallace, coordinator of the Clayton Area Sub-Council, with the hose.

Real Training in Survival Offered at Civilian Defense School at St. Mary's

On the campus of St. Mary's College in Moraga is a civil defense school which is almost unique.

It is the Western Technical Training School, operated under the Federal Civil Defense Administration.

Only one other similar FCDA school exists in the nation — just outside of Washington, D. C.

Opened in October, 1951, the Western Technical Training School has many hundreds of "alumni." They are men and women from throughout the western states. They also include local area Boy Scouts.

SOME OF THE "alumni" are civil defense workers, like Mrs. J. Wayland Barnette and Mrs. H. F. Neller of Lafayette, Mrs. Lawrence Wallace, coordinator of the Clayton Area Civil Defense Sub-Council and Mrs. Charles Garrels, chief warden of the Clayton Area Sub-Council.

Others are firemen. Many of the "graduates" are active in leadership of civil defense groups back home, and the know-how they acquire is passed on by them to many others.

"IT ALL ADDS UP to an extensive, continuous series of courses at the training school, of vital importance to the people," says Dr. B. Frank Gillette, director of the school.

Dr. Gillette, whose home is at 2151 Carrol Road, Walnut Creek, has been director since May, 1952. Before that he was on the staff of Stanford University, in the Department of Education, as director of student teaching and science education.

He was interested in atomic energy and civilian defense problems. In the summer of 1950 he organized a one-week atomic energy workshop, the first one in the West.

His wife, Ora Dale Gillette, is registrar at Mills College.

MEMBERS of the staff of the Western Technical Training School have talked to a number of organizations in this area about the civil defense training offered at the St. Mary's campus.

Dr. Gillette points out that staff members are available for such talks, and he urged any groups interested to get in touch with him at DRake 6-4423.

"NECESSARY COURSES are given each month for the development of civil defense leaders and workers," the director stresses.

For instance, the week beginning with the third Monday of each month is usually devoted to a rescue course. Another regular one-week course is for women. (Some women, like Mrs. Wallace, have participated in the other courses, too.)

A 10-ACRE AREA in the vicinity of the old Gael football field serves as a "proving ground."

With an approach to realism that would shame many a Hollywood movie director, the area has piles of debris among which rescus workers move, "bombed-out" and "burned out" buildings and simulated bombed streets.

The five-day general course this week includes valuable background material and such subjects as mutual aid and mobile support, fire-fighting, A-bomb versus high explosion effects on people and property, supply and communications problems, use of radiac instruments, psychological defense and recruitment of volunteers.

VAL PETERSON, administrator of FCDA, visited the school recently. He expressed satisfaction with the type and content of courses offered, and remarked:

"The staff is alive and in tune with the times."

Lafayette-Orinda Action on Problem Of Trucks Sought

Efforts are being made to get joint action by the Lafayette Improvement Association and the Orinda Association on the problem of trucks on Mt. Diablo Boulevard during peak commute hours.

Secretary Ray Crist of the Lafayette improvers recently discussed the problem with Frank Hart, chairman of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee, and said he would try to attend the next Civic Affairs meeting to work out joint plans.

NEXT CIVIC AFFAIRS meeting will be held April 20, 8 p.m. at Orinda School.

In a letter sent to Hart Monday, Crist wrote:

"As I told you during our telephone conversation the other night, the Lafayette Improvement Association would appreciate having your group cooperate with us in making an all-out effort to keep as much heavy truck traffic off Mt. Diablo Boulevard, during morning and evening commute hours, as possible.

"AS YOU ALREADY know, traffic conditions on this highway are critical between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 and 6:30 p.m., due to the tremendous flow of commuter automobiles and buses.

"Use of the highway by heavy trucks of the truck-trailer type at these hours has always presented unnecessary hazards, and, in some instances, has caused accidents.

"WE WROTE THE following trucking firms in December, asking their cooperation as to the problem: Fibreboard Products (Seaboard Transportation Co.), Columbia Steel Corp. (Pittsburg), Golden State Company (S.F.), Delta Truck Lines (S.F.) and J. A. Nevis Co. (Antioch).

"All but Seaboard, Nevis and the Stapel Lines promised their help.

"Seaboard told us in so many words that they would not cooperate. Nevis did not answer and Stapel, as of today, has not been heard from.

"We would like to meet with your group, Frank, and work out plans jointly on this problem."

Oak Springers to Preview Clubhouse

Members of the Oak Springs Home Association will preview their new club house, in conjunction with the regular monthly meeting of the association, at 8:30 p.m. Monday. Formal dedication ceremonies will take place Sunday, May 9.

Work on the beautiful new club house is being rushed to completion in order to be ready for the opening of the pool and adjacent facilities on May 16.

The resignation of E. F. Crider, now in his second term as president, will become effective at the conclusion of this meeting, and Douglas Adie will be inducted as the new president.

Refreshments will be served by the ladies of Oak Springs.

Rotary Accepts New Member--Sees Movie

The Orinda Rotary Club inducted the Reverend Charles Hill of the Episcopal Church in Orinda as a member at their meeting Wednesday at the Orinda Willows.

Entertainment was a movie presented by Neal Thurman of the National Cash Register Company. The movie, entitled "The Bell Heard 'Round the World," dealt with employee benefits developed by the company.

Next week Herbert Hauser, a Rotarian, will present a program on the 1952 Olympic Games.

Contract Awarded For School in Moraga Del Rey

Pacific Coast Builders of San Francisco were awarded a contract Monday night for the construction of the new Moraga Del Rey school in Orinda.

Bids for the school were reviewed by Trustees Mrs. Catherine Schwarck, Seaver Ballard and Edgar B. Stewart at Orinda School. Bids were opened by Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff.

THE LOW BID of $189,350 was let for construction of eight classrooms, an administration unit and two kindergarten rooms.

The building will be constructed on the site at El Camino Moraga and the intersection of Don Gabriel Way. Preliminary work should start within 10 days, Sheaff said, and it is hoped that the building will be completed sometime this fall.

"We received seven bids," said Sheaff, "and all of them were really very good. The bid includes site development, grading, paving and playground paving."

"WE ARE BUILDING this school for about $11.50 a square foot," he added, "which is well below the state average of about $16.50 a square foot."

The bids ranged from low of $189,350 to a high of $203.400. The estimates were based on two jobs, the construction of the school proper and an alternate for an additional kindergarten room.

Pacific Coast Builders bid $176,750 for the school and $12,600 for the alternate kindergarten room.

Organized Play Program Started By School Board

An organized recreation program for the Orinda School District will be put into operation tomorrow.

This was decided by the trustees at a meeting of the School Board Monday night at Orinda School at 8 p.m.

Present were Trustees Edgar B. Stewart, Catherine Schwarck and Seaver Ballard. Anthony Cianciarulo was ill with the flu and Ritchie Smith was out of town.

THE PROGRAM will be an experiment for the rest of the school year, according to Joseph L. Sheaff, superintendent of schools, to try to determine the actual need for such a program.

Up to the present time the school district has provided supervised play after school and on Saturday but a fully organized recreation program has not been attempted.

The new program will be in operation after school from 3:30 to 5 p.m. each school day and from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. each Saturday at both the Glorietta and Orinda playgrounds.

THREE DAYS each week the program will operate on the Sleepy Hollow playground.

The program is designed primarily for boys and girls from the 3rd grade through the 8th grade. However, younger children or high school students in each of the areas will be welcome to take part in the activities, said Sheaff.

Frank Isola, physical education director for the school district, is in charge of the program and will be assisted by various members of the faculty who have had recreation experience.

Rehearsal Times Set For Absurdia Acts

Technical rehearsals for "Absurdia in Suburbia IV" will be held at the Orinda School Monday and Tuesday nights at 8 o'clock.

The first act will be staged Monday night, while the second act will be held Tuesday.

This is the preliminary to the final dress rehearsal for the Orinda Mothers Club production which will be staged at the Acalanes High School auditorium April 30 and May 1 and 2.

Excess Water Problem Tackled By Sewer Board

The Central Contra Costa County Sanitary District Board devoted a special meeting last night to a report submitted by District Engineer Gerry A. Horstkotte Jr.

The report was concerned primarily with leakage of surface water and indicated two solutions.

"IT ALL DEPENDS," said Horstkotte before the meeting, "on whether the board decides to develop the district within its present boundaries or to expand and annex certain topographical areas which naturally flow into the district."

Horstkotte offered two possible solutions to the problem of volunteer surface water which is finding its way into the district lines. One solution will apply regardless of the action the board takes in respect to expansion.

"MY REPORTS," said Horstkotte, "recommend remedial action which will enable us to live with the leakage until it has been corrected. This can not be accomplished all at once," he stated. "It may take four or five years. There is no one thing we can assess all the water too."

The corrective work is primarily designed to relieve the health hazards in the Orinda area. Although some corrective work has been done in Orinda so far as district finances permitted, it has "scarcely kept pace with the added loads put on existing facilities," because of rapid growth of the area.

EXPANSION of the upper and lower Orinda pumping stations and installation of an additional main trunk section to remedy the existing situation would cost an estimated $19,700.

The report explained, however, that expansion of facilities in the Orinda area would add flow to the already overloaded district system, resulting in a "chain reaction" from Charles Hill Road downstream to the district treatment plant near Pacheco.

Alleviation of this resulting situation would require installation of additional main trunk sections in the Lafayette and Saranap regions and from the City of Walnut Creek to the treatment plant on Arnold Highway.

"I can only give an educated guess at the total cost of the work at this time," Horstkotte said, "but it would be in the neighborhood of $2,602,500, exclusive of treatment plant expansion."

Here Are Standings in SUN Sub Contest!

THERE IS STILL plenty of time to join The Sun's Circulation Club and win the brand new Chevrolet two-door sedan, the tour to Mexico City, or one of the three $100 cash awards.

There is room for more workers, as all who do not receive an award will be paid a cash commission on all subscriptions turned in by them.

ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS, whether new or renewals, count for votes. Subscriptions are easy to get. Every day people call up and subscribe to The SUN without having been solicited, which shows how simple it is for candidates to get them.

A number of new nominations have been made this past week. Their names appear in the list, with those previously published.

Report States Racketeers Into Child Aid Funds

Chiselers and racketeers are fraudently obtaining money from the aid to needy children program in Contra Costa County, it was charged by Attorney General Edmund G. Brown in a recent report.

Contra Costa County was listed among those which are not complying with the law in requiring investigations of claims by the district attorney's office.

However, Robert Wymer, assistant director of the county's social service department, asserted at a meeting of the board of supervisors Tuesday that this county was "miles ahead" of many others in the state in prosecuting absent parents who seek to escape supporting their children.

Brown emphasised in his report that there was a great difference between Contra Costa and adjoining areas such as Alameda County, which was instrumental in setting up the procedure which is working effectively wherever it is employed.

The matter came before the board of supervisors at the request of Supervisor Warren Buchanan.

"Why is it we're so much higher than Los Angeles county," Buchanan asked. "This county and Fresno county are in the top bracket," he added, referring to Brown's report.

Wymer replied that prosecution of absent fathers, and in a few cases, of deserting mothers, began in May, 1951, before state legislation requiring such action went into effect the following October.

Brown's report stated that more than $10,000,000 per year is being paid on false claims for aid throughout the state.

Buchanan felt that it was not a true report since it made no mention of returns of funds achieved through prosecution.

Assistant District Attorney Thomas McBride agreed, and said results of investigations and prosecution of fraud cases by absent fathers in Contra Costa County compare favorably with any county in the state.

Knave, Hand Us That Crying Towel . . .

"Ubiquitous" wasn't the word used, but the Daily Knave, in his Oakland Tribune column the other day, commented that "unless somebody was mistaken, District Attorney Francis W. Collins of Contra Costa County was in two places at the same time" a few days ago.

"A telephone call to his home in Pinole," the Knave reported, "was answered by a woman's voice that said Collins was not home, and that he had left for his office.

"A later telephone call to the same place was answered by Collins himself. He was at home, he said, sick in bed.

"Both calls were placed to give Collins an opportunity to answer charges by the attorney general's office to the effect that he has failed to investigate applications for aid to needy children, as the law requires.

"Whether ill or working, he had practically no comment."

Without an "I-could-have-told-you-so" attitude, The SUN extends to the Knave its understanding sympathy.

The SUN has had a number of experiences of trying to get in touch with Collins, particularly in regard to gambling news, and of being told that he was in various places at the same time.

Once, in fact, our Politicus almost spun into a nervous breakdown after unsuccessfully trying to reach Collins by phone for a couple of weeks, with calls being placed at different phone numbers every couple of hours or so.

And the times we have received "no comment" comments from the district attorney are too numerous to be able to remember for accurate comment as to the number of them.

Move over, Knave. Hand us a corner of the crying towel.

Parallel Tunnel Here Proposed In State Bill

Proposal for a second tunnel parallelling the Broadway Low-Level Tunnel between Contra Costa and Alameda Counties highlighted legislative devlopments this week regarding highways for this area.

The proposal was contained in a measure to be offered by Assemblyman L. H. Lincoln (R-Oakland).

Long considered a necessity by residents of this area, the parallell bore would be a part of a 4200-mile "mainline" system throughout the state ,estimated cost of which would be about $2,360,000,000.

THE OVER-ALL program would be $100,000,000 cheaper than the State Senate plan for a $2,460,000,000 system of 4800 miles of major highways.

Lincoln, principal author of the bill, and Assemblyman Thomas Erwin (R-Puente), co-sponsor, said that the measure would be put in the hopper as soon as route designations are completed and other assemblymen join them as co-authors.

IN ADDITION TO the parallell bore to connect Contra Costa and Alameda Counties, the Lincoln bill would provide for:

1. Inclusion of the Arnold Industrial Highway from Martinez to Stockton in the "mainline" system.
2. A connection between Martinez and Benecia.
3. A direct-line highway from Crockett to San Pablo.
4. Early completion of the Eastshore Freeway, including a double-deck structure from Broadway in Oakland to the Bay Bridge ramp.
5. Freeway status for Mountain Boulevard.

Also contemplated is a second bridge across Carquinez Straits.

UNDER LINCOLN'S bill, the Bay Area would gain some $50,000,000 worth of additional construction, as compared to the Senate version.

Lincoln said the measure is designed to establish better balance between metropolitan and rural areas and between northern and southern sections of the state.

Erwin said he believed the bill would "wring out some of the political water" in the Senate program.

Other recent legislative developments regarding highways included:

1. INCLUSION of State Highways 24 (Mt. Diablo Boulevard) and 21 (Danville Highway) in the proposed Strategic State Highway System as proposed in a bill presented by Senator Edwin J. Regan (D-Weaverville). Previously, only Highway 40 had been listed as a strategic state highway.

Under the new proposal, approved by the Senate Transportation Committee ,there would be 23 miles of Highway 24 in the strategic designation, and 14.1 miles of Highway 21. Of the Highway 24 miles, 12.9 would be rural, while 4.2 would be in cities. Of the Highway 21 miles, 14 would be rural and .1 would be in a city.

Estimated cost of development of Highway 24 under this plan would be $36,782,000, according to figures submitted to the Senate by Director Frank Durkee of the Department of Public Works. Durkee estimated cost of Highway 21 development would be $9,910,000.

These cost figures include estimates on right of way and construction expenses.

2. FAVORABLE recommendation by Senate Transportation Committee of Senate Bill 109, which calls for a state appropriation of $400,000 for a study of Bay Area rapid transit needs, with funds totaling $350,000 to be added by th nine Bay Area counties (including Contra Costa), each county giving a proportionate amount.

The bill was re-referred to the Senate Finance Committee.

MEANWHILE, interest mounted in the possobility of state construction of a Shepherd Canyon Freeway leading into and through Moraga alley, in exchange for Contra Costa County's and the City of Oakland's taikng over maintenance of present stretches of state highway.

Chairman H. L. Cummings of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors and County Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer expressed hope last week that such an arrangement would materialize.

Cummings has conferred with Contra Costa legislators in Sacramento on the matter, and he said they will attempt to introduce appropriate legislation. Sauer has conferred with Oakland city officials and J. W. Vickrey, assistant state highway engineer in charge of planning.

Red Cross Fund Drive Tops Quota

Mt. Diablo Chapter again exceeds its goal. With a total of $29,163.11 collected as of Monday the Red Cross nears the completion of its month long solicitation of homes and businesses in this area.

The established quota announced by Fund Drive Chairman Edmund S. Barnett on March 1 was $28,900. The amounts collected in each community follow:

Walnut Creek South, $3054.00 or $504 over their quota. Danville with $1913.46, or $313.46 over the quota. Walnut Creek West with $260.53 over their quota, collected $1010.53. Orinda collected $8481.77, which exceeded their quota by $181.77. Walnut Creek Northeast's collections of $757.60 exceeds their quota by $157.60. $136.50 of Diablo's $986.50 collections were in excess. Moraga collected $34 in excess of their quota, reporting $84 collected. Alamo had $5 over their quota or $1255.

Canyon has $27 more to reach its quota of $50. Ygnacio lacks $36.10 of their $425 quota. The schools need $97 more to attain their $325 quota. Walnut Creek East lacks $235.30 of its $750 quota. Walnut Creek business needs $252 to reach its quota of $2500. Lafayette lacks $400.99 of its $7400 quota.

If you have not yet been contacted, mail your check to Red Cross, Walnut Creek.

Teachers Ask Salary Raise

A group of teachers representing the Orinda Teachers Association appeared before the Orinda School Board Monday night to discuss salary problems.

The teachers, James Comer, Glenn McNicholas, Diane Boettcher, Peggy Rathert and Ted Boyce, proposed an increase in the starting salary to Trustees Mrs. Catherine Schwarck, Seaver Ballard and Edgar B. Stewart. Also present was Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff.

The teachers also proposed an increase in the yearly increment which is the automatic yearly increase for experience in the teachers' salary schedule.

Because of lack of information from the Legislature relative to the new state appropriations, the board deferred any action.

Orinda Chamber to Meet April 21

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce will meet April 21 instead of next Tuesday as announced last week.

The meeting will be at the Casa Orinda at noon, as usual.

Spirited Discussion on Sewer Board Report Held; More Coming April 23

A preliminary discussion of the report of the firm of Headman, Ferguson & Carollo, consulting engineers, occupied the major spot at the meeting of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary Board of Directors April 2.

A spirited discussion was carried on by Board President Elliott H. Johnson and Ben Ferguson, who represented his firm.

A special meeting was set for April 23, 7:30 p.m., to discuss the report thoroughly.

"The report is primarily descriptive," said Ferguson. "There is no criticism of the board or management, but the margin between revenue and expenses is not what it should be."

AT THIS POINT Johnson interrupted him and called the attention of board members M. H. Stanley, Frank W. Salfingere and Ernest Spiegl to a chart on page 28, concerned with the construction of local improvement districts.

"Does this chart deal with the contract construction period or the actual construction period?" he asked Ferguson.

Ferguson finally stated that it represented the contract period, and that the actual period could be longer or shorter.

In addition to the board members present, John A. Nejedly, attorney for the board, and G. A. Horstkotte Jr., engineer, were in attendance.

THE CONVERSATION for the most part was between Johnson and Ferguson and went as follows:

Johnson: "Is it your idea that it would be a good idea to annex Danville areas when there is a large area in our district which is not sewered?"

The question was not answered, due to interruption from bid-opening procedures.

Johnson: "I am disappointed. You have no conclusions or recommendations in the report, but have left us to draw our own. Did you inspect our treatment plants?"

Ferguson: "Yes, sir, I was there."

JOHNSON: "Anything wrong with it? It was not touched on in the report."

Ferguson: "No, it is efficiently run, and too much is not being spent on it now."

Johnson: "How about pumping stations? Do they cost too much?"

Here a member of the reporting firm answered that routine maintenance was being carried on, and that, though expensive, it was good policy.

Johnson: "Is there any criticism of the engineer's salary?"

FERGUSON: "I would say if anything that he is underpaid."

Johnson: "Why wasn't all this in the report? . . . You state that the engineering department is engaged in extraneous activities. What do you mean?"

Ferguson: "Local improvement districts are engaging time. You can't expect standby personnel to do the job, but you would have too many engineers if there was an abrupt termination of LID's. They are extraneous in the current affairs of the district."

JOHNSON: "The law says the district engineer is a contractor. There never could be an LID made without the district engineer taking charge. He has to provide the service. We have five less men now than we had a year ago. What man would you let loose?"

Ferguson: "I don't think we should be drawn into naming personalities . . . there are just too many men."

Johnson: "You were around here day after day. Did you see anybody loafing on the job?"

Ferguson: "No, but . . . "

Johnson: "If we're not using our force on some essential duty, we should cut them off, right? I'd still like to know who you'd get rid of!"

FERGUSON: "I still think you're going to have to reduce or get more revenue."

Johnson: "In the future, with lack of LID work we may have to lay someone off. Is it now?"

Nejedly: "We have been averaging four and a half LID's per year for the past five years. We have had two already this year and two requested."

STANLEY: "If we keep enlarging the district we will get heavier expenses and less revenue, right?"

Ferguson: "Yes. Your connection fees are lower than any I know of. Assessed valuation will increase, but there will be no direct relationship to the number of people you serve."

Johnson: "File the report. Ferguson will return and we will discuss it further."

Ferguson agreed to be present at the April 23 meeting.

Democrats Hear Mrs. Knobel Talk

Mrs. Mary E. Knobel, candidate for the Acalanes High School District Board of Trustees, spoke before the Central Contra Costa Democrats in Lafayette Tuesday evening.

At a meeting at the Lafayette Community Church at 8 p. m. she stated her belief that it is the job of the board to work more closely with parents, teachers and administration in order to bring about greater understanding of the problems of the community and the schools.

She indicated that in her opinion most of the controversies which have arisen between parents and administrators were directly attributable to what she termed an "uninformed public."

Lack of adequate information and need for closer communication were given as prime causes for unfortunate clashes between communities and school officials throughout the country.

Mrs. Knobel emphasized that women trustees cound contribute much in the way of time and understanding that men, through pressure of business, are frequently unable to provide.

Johnson Resigns As Board Head

Elliott Johnson, president of the Board of Directors of the Central Contra Costa County Sanitary District, was scheduled to resign his post at a special meeting last night.

He offered his resignation to the board last week, but it was deferred until last night due to the absence of Director Irving Roemer.

Johnson explained that he and his wife are planning a three-month tour of Europe to start April 25, and he felt that district affairs would be served better by a formally elected head rather than an "acting" officer during his absence.

"I am offering my resignation as chairman but I am not resigning from the board," he explained.

It's wiser, easier and thriftier to do your shopping at home. Why look elsewhere?

Parkmead To Host Pupil Spelling Bee

An old-fashioned spelling bee will be held in Walnut Creek's Parkmead School Tuesday, county school officials announced today.

Each school district in Contra Costa County may enter two contestants and two alternates, according to the county superintendents office.

Parochial schools are invited to participate. Fields A. French, principal of Walnut Creek School will be chairman and host for the bee. Districts are to notify him by Monday, listing contestants.

Parents are invited to hear the bee beginning at 10 a.m. in the all-purpose room at Parkmead School.

Winners will be eligible to participate in the district contest in San Francisco.

School Trustee Contests Develop

With the filing of declaration of candidacy by a Concord attorney, a contest has developed for trustee of Contra Costa Junior College, County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson disclosed today.

Opposing the incumbent, Fred R. Abbott of Oakley is David N. Bortin, 1999 San Carlos Street.

The annual election of school trustees in all district will be held May 15. Candidates may file until April 15 at 5 p. m.

A contest has also developed in the Lafayette Elementary School District, where Incumbent Charles B. Neuman and Theodore E. Newman are candidates.

Carpet Bazaar Now Underway

Lafayette residents will have an unusual local opportunity to see the latest fashions in carpeting and learn about all the exciting new materials that are being utilized by this country's carpet mills.

The event is the annual nationwide Carpet Fashion Bazaar, from next Monday to April 23.

ALL FOUR Lafayette carpet dealers will be showing the newest weaves, and will be prepared to give interested shoppers complete information on all the new developments in the carpet industry.

If you have any questions on subjects such as wool vs. cotton, cotton vs. carpet rayon, properties of linen or value of Fiber E, it's a good time to get up-to-the-minute information on them.

Among the four Lafayette stores all the major brand names of carpeting are represented. Many outstanding import lines are being shown, also.

THE DEALERS participating are Lafayette Furniture.

Park Committee to Meet With County Plan Consultant

Whether or not the county will now go ahead with its projected park survey will be decided around April 17 when the County Park and Recreation Committee meets with Charles Hayes Diggs, newly-appointed county planning consultant, Alvin Burton of Walnut Creek, chairman of the Contra Costa Park Council, announced at an open meeting in the Antioch high school recently.

Burton and his citizens' group are campaigning for a regional-type park system to be established in the county and have been insisting on the urgency of the prespective survey, which was approved last fall by the board of supervisors but later pushed aside while the county considered overall master planning.

Opposed to waiting for a park plan to be included in the overall survey, Burton contended that park planning should have priority because of the county's rapid growth. "One new family is moving into the county every hour, and possible park sites are being swallowed up by new homes and incoming businesses," he asserted.

John F. Baldwin of Martinez, former congressional candidate and now park council legal advisor, advocated immediate park planning to forestall possible loss of state appropriations, including prospective allocations from tidelands oil royalties.

Sam K. Cook of Concord, regional director of the Associated Sportsmen of California, explained that his organization's aims of conservation and preservation of wild life were similar to those of the park council and offered cooperation. The council, as a body, voted upon the suggestion of George H. Cardinet, Jr., of Clayton, to support the Sportsmen's current campaign for passage of a bill to allow fishing in publicly-owned water lands.

Cardinet spoke briefly on the state riding and hiking trail program and showed films of one of Concord's famed trail rides. He introduced Frederick Brotsch, chairman of the '53 trail ride, and M. David Klotz, also of Concord, who had taken the films.

The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday in Concord.

W. P. Plans for Sacto Northern Still Uncertain

The fate of the Sacramento Northern tracks in this area was again delayed when a special meeting called by the Oakland City Council to discuss the Union Street franchise was postponed until Tuesday.

A meeting had previously been scheduled for Tuesday of this week.

At present negotiations between the city and officials of the Oakland Terminal Railway and the Western Pacific Railroad are centered around the purchase price of the franchise, annual rental from the railroad to the city and the amount of faithful performance bonds to be posted by the carrier.

If the franchise for the use of Union Street from 5th to 12th Streets is granted, Western Pacific intends to petition the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to remove the Sacramento Northern tracks from 40th and Shafter, to West Lafayette Station.

Western Pacific is the sole owner of Sacramento Northern. OTR is jointly owned by WP and Santa Fe.

The Acalanes Board of Trustees announced this week that their monthly district meeting will be held Monday, April 13, instead of the regular Tuesday, April 14, date.

State Aid for Orinda Schools? Here's the Picture . . .

What is state aid for school districts—and how does the Orinda Union School District fit into the picture?

"State aid is a law passed by the vote of the people of California to more adequately house the pupils in the public school system," Orinda Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff explains.

"The law is set up to provide funds to aid and assist school districts in the state to acquire sites, construct buildings and equip these buildings for the purpose of bettering the educational facilities of the public school system.

"Many districts, because of low assessed valuations and laws restricting the borrowing of money within the district, find themselves with two, three or even four times as many students to educate as they have facilities to educate them with.

"Since these districts could not bond enough money or tax themselves enough to construct needed school buildings, this new law was submitted to and passed by the people of the state. It enables school districts to borrow the money from the state and pay it back at a low rate of interest over a period of 30 years."

HOW DOES A school district qualify for state aid under this new law?

Explanation by Sheaff and the Orinda School Board is as follows:

In order that a school district may qualify for state aid, there are several requirements that must be fulfilled, all of which are based on the need of additional facilities and conclusive evidence that the school district has done everything possible to meet these needs, from a financial standpoint.

FIRST REQUIREMENT is that a statement has to be provided to the State Allocation Board that the district is bonded to its capacity. (A district is bonded to capacity when it has sold all the bonds that are available to sell, i.e., 5 per cent of the total assessed valuation.)

If the district has unsold bonds at the time the application is made, these bonds must be sold and used by the district before the state money is provided.

The statement must also show that there are no capital outlay funds available for the purpose of building. If capital outlay funds are available they must be encumbered for some specific purpose. Otherwise these funds must be used for building and are required by the law to be contributed by the district to the project applied for under state aid.

The money now in the Orinda School District's capital outlay fund will be used this year for the construction of the Moraga Del Rey School.

SECOND REQUQIREMENT under this law is that the total school building area in the district shall not be in excess of the areas permitted by the act.

This means that (1) the total amount of space in all the schools of the district must be totaled, (2) each pupil is allowed so many square feet of area kindergarten through 6th grades, 55 square feet per student; 7th and 8th grades, 75 square feet per student).

Total attendance in a school or project is multiplied by 55 square feet or 75 square feet, depending on the grade level. The product must be more than the space available in order to be considered in the application for funds.

GLORIETTA SCHOOL has a total building area of 21,077 square feet. This includes classrooms, storage space, heater rooms, office space, teachers' rooms, lavatories. The covered walks count as one-half area.

There are 12 classrooms and one kindergarten room. The law requires that each classroom must accommodate 33 pupils in average daily attendance in grades 1 through 6. The kindergarten room must accommodate 55 pupils, which assumes that there is to be an a.m. and a p.m. class.

Since there are 12 classrooms and one kindergarten at Glorietta, you multiply 33 pupils times 12 classrooms and add 55 kindergarten pupils to determine the maximum number of students that can be accommodated at this school. The product obtained multiplied by 55 square feet equals the number of square feet which is needed to adequately house the children on this school site.

It works out that Glorietta can accommodate 451 students, which makes it necessary to have 24,805 square feet. Since there are actually only 21,077 square feet there is a lack of 3728 square feet, according to the state formula. Consequently, the school district qualifies under the state aid program to build additional educational facilities on the Glorietta site, to make this a complete elementary school.

THIRD REQUIREMENT under the law is that the trustees of the district must call an election asking the electorate to give them (the trustees) authority to borrow the money (the amount of which must be specified on the ballot) from the State of California.

If the district is not bonded to capacity it is necessary to hold an election to have the people vote the necessary bonds to bring the district up to its capacity.

DOES THE ORINDA School District qualify for state aid?

"Yes!" says the Orinda School Board. The trustees point out that:

Besides the 3728 square feet lacking at Glorietta School, the district finds itself approximately 23,000 square feet short of having enough adequate facilities for the proper education of its boys and girls even with the completion of the new Moraga Del Rey School.

THIS NUMBER OF square feet is enough to build 10 classrooms, shop and homemaking facilities, an all-purpose room, a library room, offices, storage space, lavatories, etc. A complete school!

The amount of money allowed on a project also includes site development and playground facilities, paving, fencing, landscaping and all the desks, tables and chairs that are needed to equip the school.

WHAT ARE THE Orinda School District trustees doing about obtaining help from the state?

The board states that certain facts should be remembered, including:

1. The state DOES NOT GIVE this money to the school district. "You, the people, must signify through an election that you authorize your school trustees to accept and repay the amount needed," they say. "The trustees are planning such an election in the near future.

2. "Since the state is loaning the district the money, they have set up certain rules and regulations with which the district must comply. Forms ,statistics, plans, surveys and preliminary approval take time. Final approval is slow to obtain.

"The school district is at present conforming to the procedure suggested by the Department of Finance and the Department of School House Planning."

Among the many places of interest they enjoyed were Bad Water, the lowest spot on the continent; the sand dunes with their patterned surfaces, the natural bridge, and Ubehebe Crater. The boys took a horseback ride on the dessert and collected many interesting rocks.

On their return trip they drove through the beautiful fields of wild flowers in the Tehachapi mountains, and in the town of Tehachapi, the children especially were interested and awed at the sight of the ruins from the last great earthquake.

Could These Be April Showers?

The weatherman slouched into the office yesterday, looking somewhat bedraggled. He had predicted fair but cool weather, and he wasn't about to wear a raincoat. Consequently, he was in a nasty mood when it showered, so he snapped out the following report.

"High for the period from April 2 through yesterday noon was 73 degrees on the 2nd and 3rd. Low was 33 Wednesday, and there wasn't enough rain to record, so there," he snapped spitefully.

"We don't make the weather," we answered, "so don't get mad at us. What is the seasonal rainfall, now that you have brought up the subject?"

He consulted a soggy black book and replied sulkily, "26.31 inches. And I hope it just rains and rains and rains."

We left him sulking, knowing that April is a fickle month.

Udall's Music Will Spark Absurdia

"Music maestro, waltz me around," "Please, music maestro, swing me down low." "Hey, music maestro, make my feet beat." And he will, too, in any tempo at the fourth annual "Absurdia in Suburbia" extravaganza of the Orinda Mothers Club on April 30, May 1 and 2 at the Acalanes High School.

Music maestro in this case is Fred Udall, who has written and composed all of the music for this year's show. Many of his songs helped to make last year's production so successful, and good music is the key to an excellent variety show.

No amateur song writer is Fred. Many of his songs have been played by such bands as Freddie Martin, Ray Noble and Guy Lombardo and three of his songs have been accepted by New York publishers.

He began writing music when he was a freshman at the University of California and writes now as an avocation. His talents in the entertainment world have been turned to comedy and serious dramatic work.

Here he is well known for his comedy skits and master of ceremonies work, as well as having served as president of the Orinda Dramateurs. He has performed in every "Absurdia in Suburbia" and his skits are invariably the highlights of the evening.

During and after World War II he helped organize talent shows for the Navy and for radio; entertained troops and in night clubs in New York and appeared on television in a half-hour comedy show.

Since his return to California he is kept busy with his family and equipment business and now lives in Walnut Creek, though he formerly lived in Orinda.

You'll hear his music in "Absurdia in Suburbia" this year in "Let's Have Fun in the Country" and a waltz "As Long as We're in Love," among many others.

You may see him in a skit, too.

About our happy Country Folks

By MRS. NED de LAVEAGA
(Guest Columnist)

Easter is over, the children are back at school, and Edith Bolman is on a vacation (?) so I'll fill in for her with a bit of news for this issue. First of all and very important is that Monday is the date for the next of the Children's Hospital (Orinda Branch) lectures that become more popular as each one is held. This month we're so lucky to have Dr. Lynn White, President of Mills College and famed as a charming speaker, with us. He's going to speak on "Revolution in Modern Thinking" which ought to make us all think a little bit. Remmeber, 1 p.m. at the Orinda Country Club and if you haven't a ticket as yet, you can get them at the door. Can't say enough for this series of lectures . . . it's wonderful to have a little serious culture thrown in with all our country living. Hope the Branch decides to do it again next year.

HAVE YOU NOTICED that most attractive "barn" down at the Orinda Crossroads . . . between Marge's Coffee Shop and the Land Building. By now you know it's the Downs Interiors and in just a day or two should be open for us all to see. A great big welcome and all kinds of good luck to Joe and Jean Downs . . . The shop will be such an addition to Orinda and with such talented people running it, how can they miss — or us either! Talked to Joe just the other day and if you didn't know, he comes to Orinda with a wealth of interior decorating background, and he told me all that they will carry in their store . . . Due to the size of the building they can't have every style, piece and color to show you, but they'll have samples and can get anything that you want . . . be it furniture, traditiional or modern, all kinds of upholstery, carpeting and draperies, pictures, lamps . . . even wallpaper ideas . . . and while you're buying all these goodies from them, they will give you free, if you wish, interior decorating ideas and suggestions. And how many times have you wanted a little professional help for an added on playroom, etc.

Speaking of adding on, the Rasmussens of Orinda seemed to have gotten the bug . . . first Rudy and Glory Rasmussen of La Vuelta built on two bedrooms and a bath; then Rudy's brother, Lloyd Rasmussen and Allie began putting in an indoor patio only to find that the latters' daughter Peggy and husband Bob Field were converting their garage into a charming playroom. Complicated, huh?

Out Lafayette way a second boy, Mark McClure Mauser, has been added to the family of Nancy and Paul Mauser. And Mark's maternal grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. George McClure, are coming to the country to take over the James' home in Happy Valley. Welcome to Orinda to Carol and Bill Kilner. They are coming to Sleepy Hollow from Oakland and a second child is due there this May.

Many of the Happy Country Folk left the country for the Easter holiday. Thelma Doyle with sons Donny and David journeyed to Sacramento to be with husband and daddy Don Doyle who's busy being our assemblyman. Also of Lafayette Leslies Wilma with her boys, John and Charles, took off for the Beverly Terrace in Carmel with Mrs. W. J. Field of the Charles Hill community. Also seen meandering around Carmel Village were the Ellermeyers with their three boys and the Kalbfleischs with their two girls.

This Sunday will be the christening of John Daniel Dougery, son of Sue and Ed Dougery of Lafayette. God-mother will be Alysone de Laveaga and the God-father will be Bill Murphy of Berkeley. You may not know Bill but those of you at the recent Orinda Branch Fashion Show at the Country Club will well remember his wife, Shirley, who won the "Guess the Price of This Outfit" contest . . . she was only 10c off the total and believe me, that's good!

And congratulations to Jane Keresey of Sleepy Hollow. Right now she's coveting the trophy for "lowering her handicap the most" at the Orinda Country Club. Jane and husband Jim are back from a recent week at Sun Valley. The snow was perfect when they arrived and then all the time they were there they had blizzards. Ain't it always the way?

YOU REMEMBER LAST week in this column, Edith told you about House number 1 on the "Tour of Orinda Homes" sponsored by the Orinda Branch of the Children's Hospital of East Bay . . . to be held May 13, (that's a Wednesday) from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. That first house was the Donald Lawrie's and today I want to give you a few tasty teasers on House number 2, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Davis' of 11 El Sueno, just a few homes down from the Lawrie's. This writer went up to the Davis' for a first hand peek; it was the first time I'd seen their home altho' we used to live fairly close to them some years back and on those wonderful summer nights my eyes would turn dark green from listening to the happy voices and splashing coming from their pool.

The house from the outside is what they (meaning those who know) call "California Monterey Colonial" . . . the white stucco with the tile roof nestles snugly at the end of El Sueno . . . you walk through their gates, into a delightful court with trees sprouting up all over, fruit trees to your right and badminton court to your left. Camellias of all varieties grow up all around the front of the home . . . and then you enter! And step right into a French Provincial setting . . . notice when you're in the living room their very massive 18th Century desk . . . amble into the most complete dining room and view a gorgeous hutch with 1801 carved on it and another priceless antique china cupboard . . . from there you go out to the "outdoor dining room" . . . overlooking the hills of Orinda, the golf course, their artistically shaped pool and Eleanor and Stu's perfectly landscaped gardens.

If I go on any more I'll give the whole house away . . . but one more thing . . . their master-bedroom-library-television room is another must for you to see.

BLOODMOBILE COMING to Orinda again! The date is Thursday, April 23rd . . . will be at the Community Church from 2 p.m. until 7 p.m. Call now for your appointment . . . the number is Orinda 3177, the home of Mrs. Warren Arnett, Blood Recruitment Chairman. We want to beat our record of the last Bloodmobile visit so plan now to have a few minutes free that day.

That is all.

SANTA MARIA BRANCH of the Junior Guild of Providence Hospital welcomed new members at a tea March 24 at the home of Mrs. Louis Fekete of 738 Los Palos Drive, Lafayette. 'Doubt' Will Be Sermon Subject

Rev. Peterson has announced as his subject for next Sunday morning at the Lafayette Covenant Church, "The Cause and Cure of Doubt."

The sermon will be based on the words of Jesus concerning the doubting disciple Thomas, "Because thou hast seen me thou hast believed; blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed." (John 20:29.) That is the kind of faith necessary for this day, said Peterson.

In his sermon Rev. Peterson will deal with the various kinds of doubt we find round about us and will attempt to analyze the causes and point to the way for overcoming them.

At the evening service the sermon will deal with the character and conduct of Judas, the traitor. This is the second of two sermons on the two disciples involved in the denial and betrayal of Jesus.

Benefit Tickets Still Available

Limited reservations are still available for the play reading to be offered by Mrs. Stuart Henderson in a benefit performance for St. Stephen's Episcopal Church to be held Wesdnesday, following 12:30 p.m. dessert at the home of Mrs. William Sparling, 9 Highland Court in Orinda.

Mrs. Stuart, whose talents range from serious drama to hilarious pantomime, is well known in local theatrical circles for her varsatility as producer, performer, and writer in such groups as Children's Theatre, the annual showing of Absurdia in Suburbia, and in stock company productions following her graduation from Mills College in Oakland, where she was prominent in the dramatic art department.

She will be assisted by Mrs. James A. Brown, Mrs. Walter Eric Christie and Mrs. Sparling, as part of the individual enterprise program devised by various members of the St. Stephen's Women's Auxiliary in an effort to increase the building fund for the first Episcopal church to be built in Orinda.

Dessert will be served promptly at 12:30 p.m., with Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Mrs. Charles M. Hill presiding at the tea-table.

Reservations may be made at one dollar per person by calling Mrs. Christie at Orinda 7661, Mrs. Brown at Orinda 2906, or Mrs. Sparling at Orinda 8528.

Blalock Has Story Published

Well on the way to becoming an established author is Andrew D. Blalock, 24 El Verano.

He has had an article entitled, "Woodsman, That Tree" published in this month's "The Rotarian," the official magazine of the Rotary organization.

A charming whimsical article about the relationship between a child and a tree, the article is short and to the point, occupying only one page.

In addition to his writing activities, Blalock has become a member of The California Writers Club, one of the oldest organizations of its type. It boasts Jack London as one of its early members.

Blalock is also planning to join the Press and Union League Club in San Francisco shortly.

Young GOP Plans Informal Dance

Orinda Young Republicans are completing plans for an informal Spring dance to be held Saturday, April 25 at Carroll Ranch.

Members and friends will dance to the music of Peter St. Hill's orchestra. Additional surprise entertainment will be provided by local talent, according to Bill Platt, dance chairman.

"Contact your nearest Young Republican and get your ticket now," Platt urged. Tickets are $2 a couple and the dance will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Orinda Church to Host Bethel 218

The congregation of Orinda's Community Church will be hosts Sunday at 11 o'clock to the young women of Job's Daughters, Bethel 218, of Lafayette. The Rev. Fred R. Morrow, minister, will speak on the subject "Stir Up What You Have," using the text Second Timothy 1:6.

Music by the chapel choir, directed by Margaret Popovich, will be accompanied by Daniel Popovich at the memorial organ.

A series of four discussions will begin at 9:30 under the leadership of Dr. John Peoples of Alameda, who will use as his subject "A Christian Looks at World Affairs." The 9:30 session is of particular interest to parents whose children attend church school classes at that hour.

Young people of high school age hold their regular Pilgrim Fellowship meeting at 6:45 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

C. Ray Fowler is the counsellor.

St. Stephen's Plans Baptism

Evening prayer service will be conducted for members of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church by the Reverend Charles M. Hill on Sunday at 5 p.m. in the Orinda Community church building, with three infant baptisms being administered immediately following the processional hymn at the start of the service.

St. Stephen's Choir will appear under the direction of choirmaster Mrs. T. J. Fahay, singing as offertory anthem an adaptation work by Monk of Palestrina's famed "Alleluia," art part of the Episcopal five-week celebration of Christ's rising.

Mrs. Fahay will offer as organ solos "Easter Prelude" on "O Sons and Daughters of the Lord" by Deshayes and "Grand Choeur in C" by Chauvet.

Publishing of first bans for the marriage of two members of St. Stephen's Choir were made on Easter Sunday at the 10:30 a.m. service. Stan Stidham and Marilyn Marvin will be married at nuptial high mass by Reverend Hill on April 25 at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco. The young couple will settle in Orinda where they are well known in music circles.

This week the interior plans for the new St. Stephen's church were discussed by Mr. Hill with members of the Altar Guild and the Board of Directors of the St. Stephen's Women's Auxiliary, so that final specifications may be completed for the church sanctuary and sacristy by the architects, Arnold and Francis Constable.

Preparatory work is going forward on the church site in the Charles Hill area on Via Las Cruces, the gas lines having been installed during the past few days, and it is expected that actual building construction will begin shortly.

Here Comes the Bride

Thelma Westall Is Bride of Alex Hankin in Vancouver

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Westall of 400 La Vista, Walnut Creek, returned from Vancouver, British Columbia, Tuesday morning where they attended the wedding of their daughter, Miss Thelma Westall.

CANADIAN MEMORIAL Chapel in Vancouver was the scene of the March 21 wedding of Miss Thelma Westall, who became the bride of Alex Hankin, son of Mrs. Alice Hankin of Vancouver. The candlelight ceremony was read by the Rev. J. G. Gorwill before an altar banked with white gladioli and heather.

The bride wore white organdy over taffeta designed with a tiered skirt and an inset front of white eyelet with a fitted bodice and a standup collar trimmed with seed pearls. Her long illusion veil fell from an encrusted seed pearl headpiece. She carried a white lace fan with white orchids, hyacinths and white heather.

Mrs. George Nelson of Vancouver designed her granddaughter's wedding dress and headpiece, a family tradition, as she designed the bride's mother's wedding dress and her own among other family bridal gowns.

MISS LORNA ABBIE of Walnut Creek was maid of honor and matron of honor was Mrs. Dorine Bernier of Vancouver. Miss Lois Stevens acted as bridesmaid and Miss Kathy Hankin, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid, both of Vancouver. The attendants wore strapless gowns of gold taffeta with overskirts of bronze net, mitts of bronze net, matching stoles and tiny face veils. They carried gold fans with white carnations and heather.

Heather was used throughout the wedding as the grandparents of the bride are all originally from Scotland.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony at the Hotel Georgia in the York Room, decorated with pale yellow carnations and white heather. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with an heirloom cherub pulling a silver bell which had also decorated the bride's mother's wedding cake.

MRS. WESTALL was gowned in champagne satin with a pale pink hat trimmed in seed pearls and rhinestones, and pink shoes. Her corsage was of pink carnations and heather.

The groom's mother wore pale blue lace with a flowered hat and silver shoes. Her corsage was identical to the bride's mother's.

The bride attended the University of British Columbia and was affiliated with the Beta Sigma Phi. Up until the time of her marriage she was a dental assistant in Berkeley.

The groom is a graduate of Vancouver College and is an interior decorator in Vancouver.

For motoring to Banff, Alberta, Canada, where the couple spent their honeymoon, the bride chose a black taffeta coat with flaired skirt and Elizabethan collar. She wore a pink stole and black hat trimmed with pink roses.

The young couple will live in Vancouver for at least six months and then hope to move to Walnut Creek.

Bride-Elect To Be Honored with Tea

Friends of Mrs. John Ostlund have received invitations to a tea April 18 at her Estates Drive home.

The tea will honor her son's fiancee, Miss Bonnie Jean Jeffreys of Santa Rosa.

The engagement of Miss Jeffreys and John David Rosefield was announced at a bon voyage party held aboard the SS Lurline when the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jeffreys made a trip to the Hawaiian Islands.

The young couple have tentatively set the date of their marriage at June 27.

Mrs. John Harkness of Lafayette is planning a celebration for the couple April 25.

Hockenbeamer-Stone Wedding Celebrated By Candlelight

Alexandria Hockenbeamer and Lieut. (jg) Douglas Dacre Stone Jr., USN, exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony at St. Clement's Episcopal Church in Berkeley Tuesday night.

The church was decorated with white stock and snapdragons for the candlelight ceremony, and candelabra tiers were tied with garlands of white stock.

ALEXANDRIA (Sandy), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Embree Frederick Hockenbeamer of Dias Dorados Road, Orinda, chose her sister, Mrs. Robert Shurtleff to be her matron of honor.

Nancy Noonan, her maid of honor, and Mrs. Joseph McCormack, Mrs. Thomas Curtis, Deidre Pearson and Joan Crawford, attendants, wore floor length Nile-green net over taffeta with insets of dark green at the waist and panels of the same material down the back.

They carried colonial bouquets of pastel spring flowers backed with illusion, and wore coronets of matching flowers in their hair.

THE BRIDE wore a custom made gown of white satin brocade trimmed with silver. The groom brought the material home from Japan while he was on a tour of duty there.

The gown was made with a scalloped net yoke and net sleeves and a basque bodice and cathedral train.

Her Juliet cap of pearl and encrusted lace supported a full length tiered veil. She carried lilies of the valley and white orchids.

THE GROOM, son of Mrs. Irma Bennett Stone of Berkeley and Douglas Dacre Stone of San Francisco ,was attired in dress uniform.

The Reverend J. Henry Thomas presided.

Ushers were Robert D. Shurtleff, Tom Gentry, David Weaver, Richard S. Robinson and James Hodges.

Following the ceremony a reception was given for approximately 300 guests and friends at the Orinda Country Club.

The club was decorated with large arrangements of white stock and snapdragons with white anthurium, tulips and pots of caladium leaves. Gardenias and bouvardia surrounded the wedding cake.

The couple left for a transcontinental trip to Boston, where they will spend the next three or four months. They will then go to Bath, Me., where Lieut. Stone will be stationed.

Edwin Kerr and Frank A. Spingola Say Vows March 29

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Spingola, the former Miss Edwina Kerr of Walnut Creek, have returned from a honeymoon at Clear Lake and other northern California vacation spots and are at their new Lacassie Avenue home in Walnut Creek.

The bride in a beige suit and matching veiled hat was attended by Mrs. George Souza of Walnut Creek, sister of the groom. Her flowers were cymbedium orchids and orange blossoms.

Mrs. Souza wore a blue suit and cymbedium orchids. Miss Georgiann Souza was secondary attendant. She wore a blue dress with a white jacket and her flowers were also orchids and tiny roses.

George Souza acted as best man for the groom.

A small reception followed the wedding ceremony at the La Playa Hotel in Carmel.

A large reception for friends and relatives is planned for the newly wedded couple April 19 at Stan's Brick House.

The bride is a nurse, employed at Three Oaks sanitarium up until the time of her marriage. The groom is a mechanic at Mort Brown Pontiac in Walnut Creek.

Marie Moore to Play Piano at 'Country Parade'

"MUSIC HAS always been important to me but it now plays a secondary role to my family and home," says Marie Moore, busy mother of two children.

The guest soloist is Paul Walti, San Francisco tenor.

Walti is well known in the East Bay and was heard on Good Friday at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette. He will join the choral in the presentation of a group of "Songs of the Trail" and selections from "Oklahoma," as well as doing a group of solos.

The proceeds of this year's concert will go to the Shadelands School for children suffering from cerebral palsy. The school has just recently been started and the facilities are not adequate to accommodate all of the patients in the Diablo area.

Mr. and Mrs. Meet For Monthly Dance

The Mr. and Mrs. Club of Walnut Creek will meet in the Women's Club for their regular monthly dance tomorrow night at 9.

The club is a social dance group that meets the second Saturday of each month for a ballroom get-together. It is very informal, according to Mrs. Raymond Fuller.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Howard Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Lenara Castilio and Mr. and Mrs. Morrie Thompson.

The only requirements for membership are that people be married and interested in dancing. Further information may be gotten by calling Mrs. Fuller at Concord 5413.

Tickets on Sale For Nursery Dance

Tickets for the Orinda Nursery School's annual spring informal dance have been distrubted to members of the cooperative school and may be obtained now from them, Mrs. Kenneth Mirov, dance chairman, announced today.

Reservations should be made by obtaining tickets from branch chairmen by May 1, Mrs. Mirov said. Members who have not received tickets or any non-member desiring to get tickets may write to the roving ticket chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Hecathorn, 215 La Espiral. The dance will be held May 16 at the Diablo Country Club.

Invitations Are Sent by Mills

Invitations have been sent out this week to girls of Acalanes, San Ramon and Diablo High School, who have been recommended to Mills College, for an informal after-school "Coke" party Wednesday at the home of Ann McAllister, 3344 Las Huertas Road in Lafayette.

With Ann will be several other Mills students who will be "on deck" to answer any questions about college life that the high school girls may have.

Student recommendation is carried on throughout the year by alumnae, high school counsellors and deans and friends of the college, and is headed in Orinda by Mrs. Kirk Miles.

Later in April, prospective students will be invited to the Spring Carnival on the Mills campus which is a traditional day of festivities, floats, skits, carnival doings, followed by a dance, usually held on the tennis courts and around the swimming pool.

De Molay Mothers To Hold Meeting

The regular meeting of Las Trampas Chapter of De Molay Mothers will be held Monday at 7:30 p. m. at the Masonic Temple.

Joke Scrap Books are being made for a veterans hospital. The mothers will serve refreshments to the De Molay boys after the meeting.

Mrs. Gogstad Dances

Mrs. Idar Gogstad of Lafayette was one of the Temple Dancers who took part in the Daughters of the Nile's annual installation recently.

The Daughters of the Nile is the women's organization of the Aahmes Shrine. The installation is the only function which is open to the public.

Acalanes Dons Face Busy Week

Next week finds the Dons getting into the swing of things after a week of working out the kinks.

Easter vacation resulted in limited workouts, and the coaches have been hard at work to get ready for the rush of league competition as well as practice tilts.

NEXT TUESDAY finds the Dons hosting Pittsburg in their first home league baseball game of the 1953 season.

Red Jones or Rick Johnson will be on the mound, with either Andy Monsen or Benny Elgar behind the mask.

The Dons appear to have a well-balanced team and capable of making a run for the pennant. Look for a Don win in their opening home game.

THE SWIMMERS take off for Berkeley the same day and tackle the powerful Cal Frosh.

In an earlier meeting the Dons were beaten but far from disgraced. The Cal Babes' mermen rate the best as far as the score column goes, but look for the Dons to score a good number of points on their own.

DIABLO HOOKS up with the Dons on the local track next Wednesday, and this should be a rip-snorter.

Diablo hasn't measured the Dons in track for a number of years. On paper the devils appear to have an edge, but this could be the one the Dons have been waiting for.

The Don Bees should win from here to there over the Little Devils, as they appear to be one of the best, if not the best, Bee team in the Bay Area.

TRACK COPS the spotlight again when the Dons take part in the Martinez Relays on Saturday, April 18.

Each team has four men to an event, and the combined totals of the four are what count.

Depth counts here, and the Acalanes lads could well bring home some furnishings for the trophy case.

J.V. BASEBALL hits Brentwood here next Thursday, while the Varsity goes up against Albany's nine at Albany the same day.

Albany has a top thrower in Joe Dorsey, and much will depend on whether or not he throws.

NEXT FRIDAY the swimmers hit the pool again when they bring Berkeley High to town.

Berkeley always has a top squad, but look for the Dons to gain added prestige with a win over the Berkeley Yellowjackets.

THE J.V. BASEBALL team hits the road next Friday when they travel to San Ramon.

This will close out a busy week of athletic events.

TENNIS GETS into things when the Don players travel with the baseball team to Albany on Thursday.

Coach Bob Lord looks to have a well-balanced squad and ready to produce a league win at Albany's expense.

Acalanes Batmen Drop Opener to Antioch Panthers

The Acalanes Varsity baseball team made their 1953 league debut a losing one as they dropped a 15-4 decision to Antioch High's Panthers in a game played at the Pacheco diamond of Contra Costa Junior College.

THE DONS started well enough as they took a 3-2 lead in the third inning only to get as cold as the weather while Antioch scored more than enough to cop a decisive win in the final four frames.

Red Jones started on the mound and had his troubles as early as the first inning when Antioch posted two runs on two hits and a walk.

The Dons were back in the ball game when they set the opposition down in apple pie order in the second inning and scored three of their own in the top of the third.

TODD SORENSEN started it with a single and advanced to second when Jones was out, pitcher to first.

Bob Dwight helped the cause when he singled to right field advancing Sorensen to third and both came home when Dick Davis lined a drive to right center and ended up on third on a belated throw to home plate. Davis scored seconds later when Bob Gray laid down a perfect squeeze bunt.

JOHN CHAMPLIN walked and Bart Ferro singled to put two on with two away and it all ended with Benny Edgar flying out to left field.

The Don joy was short lived however as Antioch came back swinging to score five runs on three hits in their turn at bat adding four more in the fourth on a like number of hits and putting the finishing touches on with four runs on four hits in the 6th.

The Dons had men on the rest of the way but counted but one more tally and that in the 7th when Jerry Henderson singled and scampered across the plate on Andy Monsen's booming double to left.

THE DONS used four pitchers over the route. Red Jones, Rick Johnson, Sam Indelicato and John Olcott threw in that order.

Antioch used three hurlers in Ray Neal, John Sani and Lee Russell.

THE DONS had seven hits to Antioch's twelve. Seven walks aided Antioch's cause no end as five of them scored.

In the strikeout column four Dons went down while eight of Antioch's best went down swinging at thin air.

Dons in All-Star Track Meet with Frosh of U. C.

Alameda and Contra Costa traskmen join forces this weekend when the combined preps tackle the Cal Frosh with an All-Star aggregation.

The meet, to start at 10:15 a. m. tomorrow at Edwards Field in Berkeley, figures to produce some top-flight competition.

ADDED INTEREST for local fans is the fact that Doug Coper and Eric Murray, former Dons, are standout performers with the Cal Frosh.

Cooper runs the hurdles, while Murray heaves the shot and tosses the discus.

IN THE WEIGHT EVENTS, Murray will compete with Ray Williamson of the Dons, who has a mark of 50 feet, 11½ inches with the iron ball, and Jim Hart, a Don with a best of 48 feet, 11½ inches.

Hart will also compete with Murray in the discus ring, where Hart has a best of 13 feet, 6 inches.

Mike White rounds out the Acalanes contingent and will be entered in the high jump event, in which he has a high mark of 5 feet, 10½ inches.

Camera Club Holds Competition Meet

The Contra Costa Camera Club held its regular meeting on March 24 at Orinda Community Church. Dr. Henry Takahashi, immediate Past President of the Berkeley Camera Club was judge and critic and did an outstanding job. His selections were:

Beginner Group — Greg Heinze first and second; Audrey Heinze, third and fourth; Don Henderson, fifth.

Advanced Group — Guy Spencer, first and fourth; N. A. Wahlberg, second, third, and fifth.

Salon Group — James Hokanson was the only entry. Color, B Group — C. A. Smith, first; James Hokanson, second; Gertrude Hubbel, third and fourth; Abe Doty, fifth.

Color A Group — Ben Randall first and second; Ed Nelson, third and fourth; Irene Spencer, fifth.

Because of the large number of prints and slides being entered in the last few competitions the Club has decided to divide the showings. The meeting held on the second Tuesday will be devoted to slides exclusively, and the meeting on the fourth Tuesday will be devoted to prints. This change will be effective with the first meeting in April.

The club is glad to hear that "Bud" Dippo, its very popular and hard working past president, is now the proprietor of the Orinda Camera Shop. It is hoped that the change will enable Ben Randall to devote more time to the making of prints and slides. Ben is outstanding not only as a maker of fine prints but has also the reputation of being one of the best slide makers in the country.

HIGHWAY GAMBLERS

Many drivers would be offended if they were told they were gamblers, says the California State Automobile Association. Yet the chances they take in traffic are clear examples of betting with their lives for a slight advantage. It doesn't pay to take chances in the traffic game where life or death may be at stake. Take it easy and live longer.

Former Don Athletes Continue to Make Headlines in Various Fields of Sport

By ERWIN MATTSON

FORMER DON ATHLETES continues to grace the headlines as they put on come through performances in various fields of athletic endeavor.

Eric Murray and Doug Cooper both did better than all right when they copped three firsts in a recent Cal Frosh trails meet.

Murray was a double blue ribbon winner when he won the shot and discus wents, while teammate Cooper broke the tape in the high hurdle event.

LATEST WORD on Dick Fey discloses that he is now cavorting in the outfield for San Jose Frosh and in four tries at the plate has two for four, which gives him a nifty .500 average.

Bruce Morgan in a point winner in the high jump at Contra Costa J.C., while "Jiggers" Warren is an all around point-getter at the same place, competing in the sprints and broad jump and running a lap on the relay team.

DON FERRARESE is with the Oaks, and the dynamic left-hander needs only to get a bit more control to be a regular performer.

Don's only difficulty has been in finding the plate. He loses many a player on a 3-2 count when he misses by inches.

Don's forte in high school was control along with a blazing fast ball and sharp curve. He still has plenty if the fast stuff and a terrific curve.

The terrible is that he has a reputation for wildness, and that handicaps him two ways.

First, it is bound to affect his thinking, and secondly it affects the thinking of the umpires who tend to rule against him on the close ones.

One thing I would like to see is for Dons to get a chance to work regularly and often. In high school he was at his best when pitching twice a week. A week's layoff definitely affected his throwing and he was at his best when working hard and often.

A good day on the mound will give him confidence and a return to the form that won him the Lou Gehrig Trophy as the outstanding young player in America during his senior year at Acalanes.

ED BILL IS another who copped a first in athletics, and he did it while heaving the discus for San Jose in a recent meet at the San Diego Relays.

Bob Borghesani is East Contra Costa Junior College's best hurler in baseball and is proving to be a good all around utility player when not in the mound.

Bob throws right or left handed and may do both pitching, as coach Hugh Boschetti is their on his mound corps.

BARBARA STARK, the pride and joy of Acalanes, continues her winning way.

She has just won two national titles, setting a new record in her favorite event, the 100 yard back stroke.

Barbara is a most consistent performer and is certain to go down in the record all time greats, having made the Olympic games team at 15 years of age.

ACALANES HAS HAD AN outstanding list of athletic greats since its inception in 1940, and the persuasable Barbara is certainly at the top of the list.

Incidentally, service clubs or organizations wanting a good program should get her as a speaker.

She does better than all right with her modest and charming presentation.

Acalanes Mermen Outswim Hayward

Hayward swimmers came to the Don pool Wednesday with a high and mighty reputation, only to take a licking in both Varsity and Bee divisions.

Final scoring in the Varsity meet found the Dons out in front 42-33, while the Acalane Bees won with ease, 45-21.

JIM SMALL won the big noise in the Varsity meet as he set a reward in the 100-yard backstroke with a time of 1:08.3 and copped a first in the 50-yard free style with a fast 27.2.

Charles Knobel, with a 2:12.0 in the 200-yard free style, and Brooks de Laneux, who stopped the clocks at 1:08.9 in the 100-yard breast stroke, were other first place winners.

In the 200-yard free style relay, the Don team of John Spiegl, Bob Harrison, Charles Knobel and John Sullivan raced to another first with a 1:48.4.

IN THE BEE meet it was the Don all the way or they copped all first places but two and placed in every event, to score the one-sided victory.

Jack Gray was the Don Babes' top scorer. He collected 8 points, with a first in the 75-yard Medley and a second in the 100-yard breast stroke.

Richmond Beats Don JV Nine 6-5

The Acalanes Junior Varsity baseball nine was a bit rusty after a week's layoff. As a result it dropped a 6-5 decision to Richmond in a game played at Richmond Wednesday afternoon.

Richmond took the lead when they scored in the opening inning on a base on balls and a single.

Richmond added another score in the second only to have the Dons knot the count at 2-all when they scored twice in the top of the 4th.

RICHMOND SOON changed that, however, as they crossed home plate three times in the bottom half of the 4th.

The Dons came back with a rally of their own to score three in the 6th.

Richmond put the game on ice in the final and 7th frame when they scored the all-important run, to end the contest in two consecutive singles.

The Dons garnered from singles off the bats of Don Babcock, Richard Jarett, John Conley and Mike Barrett.

Richmond had six hits, all singles, to show for the afternoon's work.

Bill Robinson went the first six on the mound, to receive credit for the win, while John Conley hurled the first four for Acalanes, with Mike Barrett taking over in the 5th.

Air Reservists Legal Matters

Members of the 9441st Volunteer Air Reserve Squadron heard about service law at squadron headquarters in Walnut Creek recently.

Capt. Roy Adcock, Legal Officer for Camp Stoneman presented a lecture on legal matters and the rights and privileges of the man in the service.

New assignments to the squadron include: Capt. Everett E. Tranberg of 9 La Sombra, Orinida; Staff Sgt. Kenneth E. Graedel, 2311 Galindo Street, Concord; Staff Sgt. Ray E. Smallwood, 601 Columbia Park, Pittsburg; and Staff Sgt. Kenneth L. Slone, 86 Davis Avenue, Pittsburg.

Additions bring the squadron strength to 120.

Don-Alhambra Game Rained Out

The Acalanes Varsity baseball nine received another setback yesterday afternoon but this time at the hands of the weatherman.

Because of rain, their league game with Alhambra High, originally scheduled for yesterday, was postponed until Tuesday, April 28.

An early morning downpour wetted the grounds to such an extent that the game had to be called.

Dons Get Ready For 'Tulip Time'

Hot on the heels of the successful presentation of "Our Town" by the Acalanes senior drama students, Dons of the Acalanes music department are preparing an all-student musical "Tulip Time" for presentation in the Acalanes gym April 24, 8 p.m.

The cast will feature the voices of the Acalanes mixed chorus and the Acalanes symphony band. More than 100 students are participating in the show. Richard Hansen, Acalanes music department head, is in charge.

Last year the Don music department presented the operetta "The Forest Prince."

Cardinet Group Estimates Influx

The Official Planning Committee said recently that if the county accepts a half acre minimum lot size policy, there will not be sufficient land in the Lafayette-Orinda-Moraga area to take care of the increase in population which will probably occur in the next four years.

The committee anticipates an influx of 29,000 new families, or about 88,000 persons in the next four year period. According to a statement issued by George Cardinet Jr. and others on the committee if a half acre plan is accepted "there would be a minimum of 13,000 persons who would have to go elsewhere, look to federal housing or provoke slums."

Under the half acre system, according to the committee, back yards would be unkept and would not be utilized, thus we would not have space to accomodate people.

ECCJC Trackmen To Run Tomorrow

East Contra Costa Junior College trackmen have five new marks to shoot at tomorrow.

Coach Gay Bryan's Viking thinclads will be involved in a triangular meet with Vallejo and Napa J. C.'s at Vallejo. The new records were set in a losing cause last week when the Vikings visited Stanford. The Indian yearlings posted 79 points for victory while Sacramento J.C. had 43½, San Mateo 17 and Contra Costa 13½.

OF THE FIVE records, three were set by former Acalanes High athletes. They include:

Louis Kummerow, 2:05.1 for second place in the 880; John Daniel, 11:40 for third in the two mile and Bruce Morgan, 5 feet 8½ inches, tie for third in the high jump.

THE OTHER marks were set by Sherard Wood, 5:01.2, third in the mile and the mile relay team of Bob Warren, Kummerow, Woody Grover and Jim Parkinen that finished third in 3:37.1.

Warren, another ex-Don, was third in the broad jump with a leap of 20 feet, 9½ inches, below his seasonal best.

Asparagus May Be Slow to Start But Once Established, Needs Minimum Care

By BERT WRIGHT

ASPARAGUS IS SOMETIMES SLOW to start; but once well established will produce year after year with a minimum of care.

A short time ago I saw a news item about an Illinois man who for several years unsuccessfully attempted to establish an asparagus bed beside his home.

Finally giving up, he put in an asphalt driveway over his unsuccessful asparagus patch — and the next spring was startled and chagrined to find many asparagus shoots pushing up through the asphalt!

The troubles in establishing asparagus that beset most home gardeners stem from one or a combination of the following factors:

1. WEAK CROWNS. Only large, well grown, one-year-old crowns that have not been crowded in the seedling row should be used. They must not be allowed to wither or to heat in storage.

It is difficult to dig out two-year-old crowns without severe injury to the storage roots.

In sections where the plant blooms the first year it is possible to select the staminate or male plants. These will outyield the female crowns.

2. TOO DEEP PLANTINGS. The furrows should be opened to a depth of 7 or 8 inches in sandy loam soils or slightly less in heavy soils. Deeper planting discourages asparagus.

Crowns should be dropped every 12 inches, with the roots spread out and the whole covered with 2 to 3 inches of soil. Fill in more soil after the young shoots emerge.

3. LACK OF PLANT FOOD. Asparagus likes a rich soil, well supplied with organic matter.

Spade your asparagus bed to a depth of 8 or 10 inches and incorporate organic material, such as rotted leaves or compost, and complete plant food.

Broadcast the plant food over the bed at the rate of 3 or 4 pounds per 100 square feet before spading.

An annual top dressing of established beds in the early spring at this rate will pay off in more and bigger shoots.

THE FOURTH OF JULY is a good rule of thumb date for ending the asparagus harvest.

If the bed is established as a border planting between flower bed and the vegetable garden, the asparagus foliage makes a very pretty background screen for the rest of the summer.

This perennial vegetable is seldom bothered by insects or diseases. The asparagus beetle, which has a dark gray, soft bodied larva and a blue-black adult somewhat less than ½ inch in size with red and yellow markings, may sometimes cause trouble, but this pest is not common in home gardens.

HOME and GARDEN

Tomato, Pepper Easy to Grow

No amount of money can buy vegetables that taste quite as good as those picked vine-fresh from your garden. And of the many which home gardeners can grow easily, few will reward you so abundantly for your efforts as tomatoes and peppers.

Now is the time to set out transplants of these prolific money-savers, according to the Bedding Plant Advisory Board.

GIVE BOTH a warm, sunny location and spray regularly for aphis.

The peppers require regular and somewhat heavy feedings combined with an occasional heavy irrigation.

TOMATO

Tomatoes require less attention, although they should receive at least one heavy irrigation monthly for best results.

PEPPERS SHOULD BE planted double-rowed on raised beds, at about 10-inch intervals.

Tomatoes are spaced according to the variety, and whether they are to be trained on stakes or allowed to run on the ground. Space them from 4 feet apart for the large-growing varieties on down to about 2 feet for the small pear and cherry types.

Where garden space is limited, the added trouble and expense involved in training plants on trellises or stakes is more than repaid. By doing so you can grow astonishing quantities of fruit in a relatively small area.

SETTING OUT the well-finished transplants available at your nursery is much simpler than raising plants from seed. And you have vegetables with that real home-grown taste on the table over a month sooner!

Set the plants into your garden soil with the least possible delay. To provide shade and reduce wilting, set some shingles or broad sticks of wood beside the transplanted plants.

Better Business Bureau Warns Householders Against Peddlers

It's Spring, and the season of the year when householders are plagued by doorbell-ringing salesmen, peddlers and itinerant repairmen all trying to make a fast buck.

The Better Business Bureau today issued its customary warning against such operators, and while stressing that it casts no reflection against reputable firms, urged that precautions be taken against:

1. The "itinerant "nurseryman" with bargain shrubs "which will not grow or be of the variety claimed." He is selling culls, warns the Bureau.

2. The tree surgeon who "will butcher up your yard" and the landscape contractor who will plant "dead trees or trees even without roots."

3. The man selling grass seed at $5 a pound which he says will grow two inches tall. It will probably contain lots of weeds.

4. The man who says he has just laid linoleum or fixed a roof in your neighborhood and has some stock left over, at a bargain. The job he does will be "inferior" and "cost you several times more than you had been led to expect."

5. Humus and dirt peddlers selling chemically treated soil. It was collected from around some chemical plant, will ruin the existing soil in your yard and kill all vegitation.

6. The man selling "smuggled furs, lace, silks or woolens" is only selling cheap imitations. "The genuine article can be bought from local merchants for considerably less money."

7. "Unscrupulous pest control" operators who will frighten you into believing termites are undermining your house, and, once you have signed a contract, will simply spray the foundations with creosote.

The Bureau warns to deal with reliable firms, pay by check made out to the firm rather than cash to the salesman, sign completion papers only when the job is satisfactorily finished, and compare prices.

'Gigi' Comedy To Open Tuesday

Audrey Hepburn, the piquant 23-year-old English actress who rose to stardom on Broadway last year as the teen-aged demoiselle in Anita Loos' saucy, sparkling Gallic comedy "Gigi," will play the title role at the Alcazar theater (United Nations), San Francisco, beginning Tuesday evening.

The character of Gigi was created by the novelist Colette. Gigi, borrowed by playwright Anita Loos, is a young lady reared in a highly sophisticated Parisian family where marriage is regarded as a calamity. The story is of Gigi's first love and her revolt against her family's shibboletha.

Featured members of the cast are Margaret Bannerman, Michael Evans, Josephine Brown, Bertha Belmore, Doris Patston and Ronald Telfer.

Christian Science Topic on 'Sin, Disease, Death'

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" This question, comprising the subject, will be answered in the Christian Science Lesson - Sermon for Sunday. The following passages are taken from the sermon:

Matthew 9:23-25: "And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose."

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Sin, sickness, and death must disappear to give place to the facts which belong to immortal man" (p. 476).

SPOTLIGHTING THE STRIP

By KITTY COLE

Finally got in touch with AL MORTARA, but too late for last week's deadline, so here at last is the name chosen for the new restaurant and motel — EL RANCHO GRANDE.

The MORTARAS chose it because of the familiar old tune by that name, which they hope will remind you of their spot whenever you hear it. There's method in that madness.

The winning entry was submitted by LEW BOHNNE of Oakland, who asked that the $25 prize be given to the Shrine Hospital for crippled children in San Francisco. A gracious gesture, MR. B. A-lla en el rancho grande, a-lla donde vivia!!!

Didn't know my write-up about GUS SAVIDES of the EL NIDO RANCHO would create a controversy, but the customers who count EADIE BARTON as their favorite waitress at the restaurant insist that I give her some publicity, too.

EADIE has been at EL NIDO for over four years and is noted for her take-off of BEATRICE KAY, costumes and all. We, who have seen her do this imitation, think she has missed her calling.

FREDDIE'S PIZZERIA specializes in pizzas to take out, or if you want to try a concoction of your own, you may buy the dough to take home. Thirty-five cents a pound, and that amount will make two medium pizzas or one large size.

By the way, I hear that a wealthy man-about-town wants to back the BOLOGNIAS in a pizzeria-drive-ineria. Whew!!!

MILDRED VAN ALLEN, a gal of many talents, has designed some unusual skirts for the waitresses at DANNY VAN ALLEN'S. As you know, JOE the Mynah bird is one of this club's drawing-cards, and MILDRED has made chartreuse skirts with a picture of JOE painted on each one.

But since RED, the beautiful macaw, is MRS. D.V.A.'s pet, her white felt dress has his likeness imprinted thereon, and heavily dusted with silver and red gilt.

Makes all the gals even more lovely to look at.

It's wiser, easier and thriftier to do your shopping at home. Why look elsewhere?

What's In New 'Urban Unincorporated' Proposal? Here's Summary of A.B. 1841

(Editor's note: Because of the widespread interest throughout this area in the new "urban unincorporated" bill before the State Legislature, The SUN presents the following article explaining the provisions of the measure. Assembly Bill 1841.)

EXTENDED POLICE protection, structural fire protection and local park, recreation or parkway facilities and services are the three main types of extended service specified for a county service area which would be established under the County Service Area Law proposed by Assembly Bill 1841.

The measure also permits "miscellaneous extended services," described as "any other governmental services . . . which the county is authorized by law to perform and which the county does not also perform on a county-wide basis both within and without cities, except the construction or maintenance of county roads."

The type of services for a county service area would be detetrmined by the Board of Supervisors or the residents of the area.

Any property already included in a police protection district, a fire protection district or a park or recreation district would not be included in the respective type of protection and would not be taxed for that purpose.

The people of the county service area would be required to pay "a tax sufficient to pay for such extended services . . . annually levied upon all taxable property within such area."

These are some of the highlights of the new "urban unincorporated" bill. The Assembly Committee on Municipal and County Government will hold hearings on it and consider amendments that will be proposed.

A. B. 1841 is a compromise version worked out by the League of California Cities and the California Supervisors' Association. The compromise draft was worked out since the controversial "urban unincorporated" proposal of two years ago was referred to the Interim Committee on Municipal and County Government.

The present bill was introduced January 15 by Assemblyman Earl W. Stanley of Balboa Island, chairman of both the interim and the regular committee, and co-authored by 11 other assemblymen. The 11 co-authors are:

Assemblymen Jonathan J. Holibaugh of Huntington Park, Albert I. Stewart of Pasadena, Frank Lanterman of La Canada, Montivel A. Burke of Alhambra, Donald D. Doyle of Lafayette, Gordon R. Hahn of Los Angeles, Herbert R. Klocksiem of Long Beach, LeRoy E. Lyon Jr. of Fullerton, Roy J. Nielsen of Sacramento, Vincent Thomas of San Pedro and Stanley T. Tomlinson of Santa Barbara.

Stanley and all the co-authors except Thomas are Republicans; Thomas is a Democrat.

At least three amendements are certain to be offered.

Doyle has stated that he will introduce an amendment to exclude agricultural lands from community service areas.

Richard Graves, executive secretary of the League of California Cities, has announced that the league will ask two amendments:

1. — An amendment to make it clear that the bill applies retroactively where urban standards of service have been provided by a county without charge.

2. — An amendment to provide that if an area rejects the creation of the urban service district, the county will not thereafter provide urban services.

Graves, a Lafayette resident, has pointed out that Contra Costa County is not now providing unincorporated areas with urban-type services.

ARTICLE 1 (General Provisions) of A. B. 1841 states:

"The Legislature hereby finds and declares that unprecedented growth in the unincorporated areas of a great many counties of California, particularly sinee 1940, has created many new and difficult problems of government. As a result of large population growth and intensive residential, commercial and industrial development in such areas, extended governmental services are needed in such areas.

"The Legislature recognizes the duty of counties as instrumentalities of state government to adequately meet the needs of such areas for extended governmental services and also recognizes that such areas should pay for the extended services which are provided.

"The residents and property owners of such areas are entitled to have made available to them reasonable alternative methods of providing or securing the extended services they require and to choose among the alternatives a method best suited to their local circumstances."

Under a county service area setup, any one or more of the following types of extended service could be provided, according to the bill:

"(a) Extended police protection.

"(b) Structural fire protection.

"(c) Local park, recreation or parkway facilities or services.

"(d) Any other governmental services, hereinafter referred to as miscellaneous extended services, which the county is authorized by law to perform and which the county does not also perform on a county-wide basis both within and without cities, except the construction or maintenance of county roads, if:

"(1) The board of supervisors determines that such services should be provided on an extended basis within a county service area; or

"(2) Such services are specified in a request or a petition for the initiation of proceedings for the formation of a county service area or in a request or a petition for the initiation of proceedings for the furnishing of additional types of services within a county service area."

The bill provides that proceedings for establishment of a county service area shall be instituted by the board of supervisors when two members of the board file with the board a written request.

Or, when a petition signed by not less than 10 per cent of the registered voters residing in a proposed county service area is filed with the board, the board shall start the necessary proceedings.

The petition must state the type or types of extended county services to be provided.

A RESOLUTION of intention to establish a county service area must be adopted within 40 days after either a written request by two members of the board or a petition from the voters.

The resolution would fix the time and place of a public hearing to be held not less than 30 or more than 60 days after adoption of the resolution.

The public hearing could be continued from time to time, not exceeding 30 days.

"At the conclusion of the hearing," A. B. 1841 continues, "the board may abandon the proposed establishment of the county service area or may, after passing upon all protests, determine to establish the area.

"If the board determines to establish the area it shall by resolution so declare and finally determine and establish the boundaries of the county service area and designate the types of services to be performed therein."

However, if a petition signed by at least 10 per cent of the registered voters in a county service area protests adoption of a resolution establishing the area and is presented to the county board within 30 days after adoption of the resolution, the resolution is suspended.

Thereupon, the supervisors must reconsider the resolution. They can rescind the resolution, or else they must submit it to the voters of the area at a regular election or a special election called for that purpose.

In case of such a referendum election, the resolution has no further effect unless a majority of the votes cast are in favor it it.

ONLY THE TYPES of extended services specified in the resolution are to be provided.

If the board of supervisors believes additional types of extended service should be provided, it may adopt a resolution of intention to that effect and hold a public hearing.

Proceedings for setting up additional services are mandatory if two county board members sign a request or if 10 per cent or more of the registered voters in the area sign a petition.

TAXES FOR THE extended services would be annually levied and collected at the same time and in the same manner as are other county taxes.

Annexations to county service areas are provided for in Article 8 of A. B. 1841:

"Whenever the board of supervisors determines that services of the type being provided within a county service area should be provided in any other portion of the unincorporated territory of the county whether contiguous to the existing area or not, the board may annex that territory to the area in the manner provided by this article."

The board would conduct a public hearing on the proposed annexation. If, after the hearing, the board orders the territory in question annexed to the county service area, the annexation becomes effective immediately.

Whenever any territory in a county service area is included in a city "by reason of incorporation, annexation or otherwise," that territory becomes automatically excluded from the county service area.

If the board of supervisors does not levy any county service area taxes within the area for three consecutive years, the county service area is abandoned, and any remaining assets of the area revert to the county and may be spent by the county in providing governmental services within the area.

Skywatchers Need Hotplate-Clock

Have you noticed the shining new Deputy Sheriff's Mrs. Donn Court is sorting lately? Mrs. Court explains she is not out helping the County Sheriff's office round up bad men.

In fact, quite the opposite. She is merely helping the County Civil Defense and Disaster council round up good citizens to volunteer for duty at the newly organized Ground Observer Corps post for the Orinda-Lafayette - Walnut Creek - Moraga area.

Because skywatchers form a vital link in our national defense system, it is necessary for them to sign a loyalty oath in the presence of a qualified witness, says Mrs. Court —hence the badge displayed at Acalanes High April 2 as volunteers signed up following Lieut. Richard Moon's instruction class for skywatchers!

"In addition to volunteers to man our GOC post," says Mrs. Court, "we would also appreciate very much the donation of an electric clock, essential for the timing of reports to be phoned in to the Oakland Filter Center, and also either an electric coffee maker or a hotplate.

That early morning watch can be a bit frosty, and hot coffee is a great morale booster!"

For further information, Mrs. Court may be contacted at Lafayette 2762; or volunteers may call Orinda 2596, or YEllowstone 5-5267.

Thousands of car owners go on thinking they can tell by sight when a tire's pressure is up to proper standard, reports National Automobile Club. Should a motorist check his judgment against a tire gauge one day, he will find that nine cases out of ten, he is wrong.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I believe that it is your intention to be neutral politically and to present all sides of issues of local interest fairly.

Yet I do not think that your coverage of news of democratic politics either before or since the election has been equal to your coverage of the news of Republican politics, nor has it been adequate from the standpoint of a nonpartisan observer.

For example in a recent issue virtually the entire front page was devoted to the activities af our Reublican Assemblyman Mr. Donald Doyle, on behalf of the schools and the freeway. I must compliment you on this coverage.

As a Democrat I am interested in knowing how Mr. Doyle conducts himself. The only way we can have better representation and the only way in which we assist our representatives in government to represent us is to know what they are doing.

For that reason, I feel that during that same week your failure to report the activities of our Congressman as well as of our assemblyman. We must look to our local papers to supply us with the information on both counts, since the coverage by the city dailies is virtually nonexistent. Such information is vital to the intelligent voter of either party.

Your coverage of Democratic Club activities has also been almost nil, although you have reported in full the Young Republications, the Republican Women, tthe Republican Central Committee ad nauseum (to me). Perhaps you are not aware that the registration of Democrats and Republicans in this area is almost half and half. Although we Democrats may not be as socially prominent, we, too, are literate.

Finally, despite the most avid reading of the Bailey Committee-Cardinet dispute, I have been completely unable to understand the practical reasons for the argument. In other words, what's the point? I feel both because of the duration and the furor of the altercation, there is a major issue at stake, but what it is I don't know.

I know a lot of other people who feel the same way. Could you give us a down to earth story of the background and of the points at issue, instead of our present vague impression that it has something to do with county planning? Why is the decision for either ¼ or ½ acre maximum lot sizes important? What would be the practical effect of either decision?

Mrs. Gerald Coffey
1961 San Luis Road
Walnut Creek

Editor's note:

We appreciate Mrs. Coffey's interest. However, our method of selecting news is not weighed on the scales of politics. Rather, we base it on what we think is of most interest to people living in this area. To us the acid test of news value is whether it affects the people who read it. In reference to Mr. Condon, we are not unwilling to use anything he sends us if it applies to our readers. As such, we devoted what we thought was good space to him during his tenure as a State Assemblyman in Sacramento. In fact, it was much more than Democrat Senator George Miller got whose material, for most part, was more general. As to Mr. Condon's report on school legislation, that story appeared in the SUN on March 6. We receive weekly reports from him and base our publication of them upon their timeliness and news value. Mr. Doyle's story, on the other hand, we felt was both timely and of high interest locally.

Dear Editor:

The Sun has recently been reporting the activities of the United World Federalists. I assume you are familiar with the proposals of this organization and I wonder if this continued publicity is an endorsement on your part of the aims of the United World Federalists.

In the last issue of The Sun, you state that at a recent meeting in Berkeley the United World Federalists condemned Senate Joint Resolution No. 6, introduced by State Senator Jack Tenney, as contrary to "the best interests of the American people."

If I recall correctly, Senator Tenney has been opposing communism and un-American activities in California, and it would be interesting to know the contents of this Resolution No. 6, before accepting it as contrary to the best interests of this country under the world conditions we are faced with today.

Trusting you will enlighten us on this resolution, I am

ELMER BOOTH

(Editor's note: The Sun prints news and does not take editorial positions on everything it prints. We print many news reports attributing them to their source, that we would not necessarily favor or oppose. That is the job of a newspaper. The Sun did not pass a resolution; the U.W.F. did—and as there are local people active in this group we reported it—as we shall do in the future. We are asking local members of U.W.F. to send you a copy of Tenney's Resolution No. 6.)

Dear Editor:

Believing that the fight to preserve the UN against the forces which seek to destroy it is a community responsibility as well as a national responsibility, we wish to bring the following resolution to the attention of the people of this area. Senate Joint Resolution number six referred to in the resolution below is the so-called Tenney resolution introduced in the State Legislature a few weeks ago by Senator Jack Tenney and has the open backing of Gerald L.K. Smith and is frankly designed to wreck the UN. The resolution below was adopted at the 4th annual convention of the United World Federalists of California in Berkeley, February 21 and 22.

"WHEREAS UWF of California supports the UN in the work it has thus far undertaken and believes that it should be strengthened so as to make it capable of establishing and keeping the peace; and

WHEREAS UWF of California supports the foreign policy planks of both major party platforms which call for the continuing support by tne United States of the UN and the strengthening of the UN; and

WHEREAS UWF of California supports President Eisenhower's statement in his inaugural address which is as follows:

"Respecting the UN as the living sign of all people's hope for peace, we shall strive to make it not merely an eloquent symbol. but an effective force."; and

WHEREAS UWF of California believes that such support of the UN is in the enlightened self-interest of the U.S.;

THEREFORE UWF of California in fourth convention assembled resolves that Senate Joint Resolution 6 is contrary to the best interests of the people of California and the United States, and directs the president of UWF of California so to inform the Senate Rules Committee and the California State Legislature and to cooperate with leaders of all other organizations favorable to the UN in a common effort to defeat SJR 6."

We are anxious to cooperate whenever and wherever necessary with other individuals and groups not only to defeat SJR 6 but also in the positive support of the UN.

Sincerely,
Executive Council,
Acalanes Chapt.
